EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

2. Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Mr. Long on 6/25/2004.

3. The application has been amended as follows:

1. (currently amended) A medical imaging apparatus ~~with~~ comprising:
means for dealing with problems which, when a problem affecting the medical imaging apparatus occurs, self-determines, free of medically trained user input, that (those) component(s) which is (are) the cause of the problem concerned and display it (them) on a display device (17), at least one of the components of which is a self-change component which can be exchanged by an apparatus user without service support and, in the event that a self-change component is a component causing the problem concerned, the means of which for dealing with problems display a self-initiated request to exchange this self-change component, and in which the means for dealing with problems order the self-change component to be exchanged via telecommunication means, wherein the apparatus user is a physician or an imaging apparatus trained medical assistant.

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Hahn' 131 teaches a method for dealing with problems of a medical apparatus.

5. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art of record does not fairly teach or suggest an apparatus with a self-test component which when a problem occurs determines free of medically trained user input those components which cause the problem while displaying it to the display having a self-initiated request to exchange this self-change component.

6. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
